Our history

---

Caudalie creates the Vinothérapie® Spa

In 1999, while strolling through the grounds of Château Smith Haut Lafitte in Bordeaux, my husband Bertrand and I imagined the first Vinothérapie® Spa in the world. A dreamlike place far from noise, far from everything, with vines as far as the eyes can see. A place where we have combined spring water drawn from a depth of 540 meters with vine and grape extracts. A place built in red cedar and Douglas fir, with Burgundy stone, with slats letting the sunlight filter into our large pale wood treatment rooms around the thermal bath. This place blends into the enchanting landscape of vines as if by magic, like an old tobacco-drying barn found in the South-West of France.

In this Vinothérapie® Spa, senses are indulged, bodies are soothed and souls are regenerated. Our Vinotherapists carry out treatments not found elsewhere, that are effective and a delight for the senses, the Premier Cru, Vinoperfect, and Resveratrol-Lift facials, the Crushed Cabernet Scrub, Pulp Friction massage, the Barrel Bath, the Honey & Wine Wrap...

But, before that can happen, you have to enter them.

Welcome to our Spas.
